MAPFRE'S SOLVENCY RATIO STANDS AT 197.3 PERCENT AT THE END OF THE FIRST HALF OF THE YEAR

The solvency position remains within the target range.

MAPFRE has informed the General Directorate for Insurance and Pension Funds of the quarterly recalculation of its solvency position, following the Insurance Supervisor's recommendations based on best practices for Internationally Active Insurance Groups. The current and previous quarters' figures are detailed below for comparison purposes:

	12/31/2022	03/31/2023	06/30/2023
Solvency Capital Requirement (SCR)	4,591	4,708	4,741
Eligible Own Funds to cover the SCR	9,235	9,328	9,355
Solvency ratio (SCR coverage)	201.2 %	198.1 %	197.3%

Figures in millions of euros

MAPFRE Group Solvency II ratio stands at 197.3 percent at June 2023, including transitional measures. This ratio would be 188.8 percent excluding the effect of these measures, compared to 189.5 percent at the close of March 2023.

Eligible own funds reached over 9.3 billion euros at that date, of which 83 percent are of high quality (Tier 1).

The ratio remains highly stable and solid, backed by high diversification and strict investment and ALM policies.

The solvency position remains within the tolerance range established by the Group (target solvency ratio of 200 percent with a 25-percentage point tolerance range).
